afternoon.

He was born in 1823.

The death of Theen was unexpected, although for the past year he had been very weak, and it was known that his death was only a question of time. He was unconscious toward the end and passed away peacefully.

None of his friends was allowed to see him during his long filness, the only persons admitted to his room heing the doctor, the dramatist's wife and his son.

The news of Ibsen's death made a great impression in this city, where he was much beloved.

In the preliminary round of thirty-six holes, among them being Charles H. Every, the title-holder: Walter J. Travis and Finding S. Douglas, both of whom have head the metropolitan as the heid to metropolitan as the national title. The field comprised several of the most noted golfers in the East and was thoroughly representative, nearly every club in the netropolitan district having sent in entries.

Walter J. Travis and Archle Reid were the first pair to start off. The record for the course. 73, is held by Reid, but the best he or Travis could do on the opening round was 77.

Many are the children who have been killed or whose health has been ruined for life by paregoric, laudanum and morphine, each of which is a narcotic product of opium. Druggists are prohibited from selling either of the narcotics named to children at all, or to anybody without labelling them "poison." The definition of "narcotic" is: "A medicine which relieves pain and produces sleep, but which in paisonous doses produces stupor, coma, convulsions and death." The taste and smell of medicines containing opium are disguised, and cold under the names of "Drops," "Cordials," "Soothing Syrups," etc. You should not permit any medicine to be given to your children without you or your physician know of what it is composed.
